

IS GOD WRONG?

God freely and unconditionally chooses who will be His and who will not — He chooses who will be saved. It's called the doctrine of unconditional election and if it causes problems for you you're not the only one, lots of people struggle to accept it.

Paul knew we'd have questions so in Romans 9:14 – 23 he breaks off from his main line of thought, anticipates our questions and answers them for us.

- ◆ Why do you think people struggle to accept the doctrine of unconditional election?

- ◆ Paul quotes Exodus 33:19 to support his argument that it is not unrighteous for God to choose some and reject others. What does that verse tell us about the essential nature of God?

- ◆ How does knowing that prove that God is not unrighteous to choose some and reject others?
