

LOVE HAS IT COVERED

If you want to know how you ought to live in a broken, sinful world like this, this last section of Paul's letter to the Romans is a good place to look. In chapter 13:8 – 10 Paul tells us that one word covers it all. Love.

◆ Paul's theme right through from chapter 12 has been love. In what way does the first part of chapter 13 (verses 1 – 7) have a bearing on that overall theme?

◆ What does Paul mean when he says, "Owe no one anything" (verse 8a)?

◆ What are the practical implications of that?
