

Like A Wolf On The Fold

After Elijah humiliated and killed the prophets of Baal, the people of Israel — the Northern Kingdom — declared, “The Lord, He is God.” It was quite a turn around, but it didn’t last. They returned to their sin and idol worship and it just went from bad to worse until, in the year 722BC, God said, “Enough!” Israel was overrun by the Assyrians, many of the people were deported and foreigners were settled in the land. It was the end for Israel. Only the tribes of Judah and Benjamin remained of the descendants of Abraham.

- What reasons does God give for allowing that to happen to His people (2 Kings 17:7 – 14)?

- What can we learn from what happened to Israel?

- The whole thing stands as a warning. How should we go about passing on warnings like this to others?

In 2 Kings 19 we read about what happened when Assyria attacked Judah? What was different about that occasion?

What does the way God dealt with Israel teach us about Him?
