Daniel

Daniel, who was probably a teenager at the time, was among the first of God's people to be taken into exile in Babylon.

- ☐ What was the purpose of Daniel's life and ministry for the people of his day and how should knowing that affect the way we study and understand the book that bears his name?

- ☐ In the vision recorded in Daniel 7, Daniel saw four beasts. What did each of those beasts represent and how can you be sure of that?

- ☐ In the second part of Daniel's vision he was told of judgement to come and of the coming of an eternal kingdom — the kingdom of The Promise. What clues are we given as to when these things will happen?

- ☐ What would Daniel and the people of his day have understood his vision to mean?

- ☐ What can we say about Daniel 7:13 – 14 that the people of Daniel's day could not have known?

- ☐ What is the message of Daniel 7 for God's people today?
