

God Loves Sinners

On one occasion, not long before His crucifixion, Jesus spoke to a gathering of sinners and tax collectors. The Pharisees and scribes were there too, complaining as usual. Jesus told a parable that had three parts (Luke 15).

What was it that the Pharisees and scribes were complaining about this time?

What is the point of the story about the lost sheep?

What is the point of the story about the lost coin?

